A Journey through the Two Principalities

INTRODUCTION

Two Souls, One Land

There is a land where the sea is not just a horizon but the deep breath of a millenary history, and not far away, another land of forests, silent peaks and rivers that hold ancient secrets. Welcome to the journey through the Two Principalities: the sunny embrace of Salerno (Citra) and the green, proud heart of Avellino (Ultra). This is not just a holiday — it's a return to the roots of beauty.

PRINCIPATO CITRA — SALERNO

Divine Paths & Ancient Temples

Walk along the Sentiero degli Dei (Path of the Gods) on the Amalfi Coast, where the blue of the water meets the dramatic heights of the Lattari mountains. Get lost among the Doric columns of Paestum, then take refuge in the quiet of the Calore River gorges. Learn to work Vietri ceramic or visit the buffalo farms of the Sele Plain to taste the white gold: Mozzarella di Bufala Campana DOP.

PRINCIPATO ULTRA — AVELLINO

Wine Cathedrals & Timeless Villages

Enter the "Wine Cathedrals". Take part in a harvest among the rows of Taurasi, Greco di Tufo and Fiano di Avellino, discovering why this land is called the Ireland of Italy. Climb towards the Sanctuary of Montevergine or immerse yourself in the silence of the Terminio and Laceno forests, with breathtaking trekking and black truffle hunting. Explore the streets of Nusco or the architecture of Gesualdo, breathing the pure air of a province that has remained authentic.
